

Nutritionist

Are you interested in a position that will make a difference in your life and the lives of others? Community Teamwork is a private non-profit organization with over 400 employees dedicated to reducing barriers and creating opportunities for low income individuals and families.

In addition to fully utilizing your skills, Community Teamwork offers opportunities for continued professional development and career growth. Great teams, a competitive salary and well above average benefits including a generous contribution to employee 401k plans make Community Teamwork a highly regarded employer.

We are seeking a Nutritionist to provide nutrition services for WIC participants at the main office as well as satellite offices. Responsibilities include: perform nutrition assessment and certification, counseling, nutrition education and referrals for WIC participants at main office and satellite sites; perform anthropometric and hematological tests on participants; enter all certification and immunization information into the computer system and assist in other computer responsibilities; assist in developing educational materials and plan educational activities for participants; participate in quality assurance activities; provide back-up to secondary sites; assist Senior Nutritionist; assist with training activities; collaborate with healthcare providers and other social services agencies.

Qualifications for this position:

- Bachelor's Degree in Nutrition, Food and Nutrition, Dietetics, Public Health Nutrition, or Home Economics required.
- One year of experience in clinical or community nutrition helpful, computer experience and RD (or eligible) preferred.
- Sensitivity to the needs of client population required.
- Demonstrated leadership skills and decision making capabilities essential.
- Excellent organizational, interpersonal, oral and written communication skills.
- Bi-lingual skills preferred.

This is an exciting opportunity to become an integral member of an innovative, outcome focused team in an organization committed to excellence.